

We'd like to close out the year by wishing you - our extended friends and family - a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. We hope that, amidst the hustle and bustle of the holidays, you can find some time to relax and enjoy the moment.

All of us at Superior Service Electric are very thankful for the support you've provided to us over the years - and we look forward to continuing our tradition of quality service in 2020 and beyond!

It's that time of year; as if you didn't have enough wrapping, cooking, and holiday-card writing to do, guests will soon be descending upon your home, too. To make their stay as pleasant as possible and keep your sanity, keep this quick to-do list ready. It'll help you knock out the preparations in just a few hours.

Keep things toasty. To keep your guests comfortable on cold nights, make sure they have ample blankets and an extra quilt on the bed.

Set out a bouquet of fresh flowers. Even a single stem on the nightstand, dresser, or bathroom vanity will do. In the winter, clip a branch from an evergreen for holiday cheer. Extra touches like this will make your guests feel special.

Let them know the time of day (or night). Hosts often overlook the need for an alarm clock for guests because they haven't slept in the room themselves. Another item in this room that's a nice touch is a bottle of water.

Provide a comfy spot for lounging. If your guests have a nice spot to retreat to in their rooms, they'll be more tempted to hang out there a bit and stay out of your hair when you need a little me time.

Give them somewhere to store their things. Living out of a suitcase on the floor is a drag. Empty a drawer for their unmentionables.

Make sure they have a few hangers for their clothes. No room in the overstuffed guest closet? Buy some over-the-door hooks and place 5-10 hangers on the hooks. Pull out your best fabric-covered or wooden hangers for your guests.

Create a cozy guest room in another space. Many of us do not have the luxury of an extra room just for guests. In that case, clear out the clutter from the home office or other space that will be temporarily housing your loved ones. Pull out the convertible, daybed or futon and make it up for them before they arrive.

Supply bathroom products. Toothpaste, an extra razor, a fresh bar of soap at the sink and in the shower, shampoo and conditioner are the basics. Make sure it's not a bunch of yucky, half-used, 10-year-old bottles you swiped from a roadside motel.

Don't be stingy with the towels. Leave each guest two towels and a washcloth. You may want to add a freestanding towel rack if you don't have enough towel bars in the bathroom for all of your guests. You can also mount a towel bar on the back of the guest room door.
