From Halloween To Thanksgiving: The Last Chance To Prepare Your Home For The Holidays

The countdown to the holidays and the end of 2023 is on. That means if you want to prepare your property for your holiday gatherings, the time to act is now.

- Last Minute Decor And Renovation: Whether it is scheduling renovation services or finding the right decor items for your fall spread, you should act quickly to schedule and purchase in October. By late October and November, seasonal decor stock and contractor availability will dwindle and fade.
- Checking Your Linens And Kitchenware: If you're entertaining or having overnight guests, it is time to check your guest linens, napkins, dishware, and cooking gear. Upgrading and buying what you need in October helps to spread the cost of the holidays throughout the season.
- Ensure Your Home Is Ready For Increased Electrical Demand: Between twinkling holiday lights, extra cooking, and additional guests in your home - the holiday seasons also generally means increased electrical demand. Make sure your home can handle it with an electrical safety inspection.
